Legends Wall Inductees

March 2018

Trustees are delighted to report that the 'Legends Wall' is up and running, with tangible progress now visible to spectators in The Omega Terrace—we are pleased with the artwork and the feedback this has received to date.

Following the announcement of the first four inductees at the recent 'Evening of Legends' event, an official unveiling took place on Saturday 17th March (pictured above). Barry Roche and Ken Ormrod were both in attendance for a brief ceremony, accompanied by their family members alongside relatives of Clarrie Hollings and Charlie Lea.

Morecambe Football Club kindly donated match tickets for the Legends and their guests, with a buffet in The Local Choice Suite provided by Shrimps Trust.

Nominations for future inductees remains open - simply email shrimps trust@gmail.com with your selection, or visit the Trust Information Point on match days. Trust members will select future inductees through a series of online polling.

Legends Evening

Trustee Mark Swindlehurst recently organised a 'Legends Evening' which took place on Friday 2nd March at The Globe Arena.

Featuring a panel of ex-Shrimps favourites and compered by Derek Quinn, a night of funny stories, memories and anecdotes ensued. Covering an extensive timeline of the club's history, the night was well received by all those who attended.

The event itself raised £500 in aid of Alzheimer's Research UK, which was collected from entry fees and proceeds from a raffle.

Trust Share Purchase

The Trust recently purchased £100 of shares in Morecambe Football Club.Limited, thus becoming a minority shareholder able to represent Trust members at the clubs Annual General meeting. The Trust has formed structured and meaningful dialogue with the directors of Morecambe FC during the last nine months - a key objective of the Trust as it looks to strengthen the bond between the football club and the community which it serves. Trustee Jack Steer has also submitted a J30 form, to reallocate shares from defunct supporters' groups to the Trust.

Unbridled Enthusiasm for Race Night

Following the team's 2-1 victory over Exeter City, The Trust hosted a Race Night in The Local Choice Suite that supported Joanne Wilson's fundraising efforts as she looks to complete the London Marathon in aid of St John's Hospice. Thank you to all attendees, helpers, sponsors and punters - who raised just over £1000. Joanne brought her race vest, showing a name for each mile of the marathon. Mile one is Geoff Wilson.
